NOMINATIONS SOUGHT FOR UM LEADERSHIP AWARDS

MISSOULA-

The Center for Leadership Development at The University of Montana is accepting award nominations for students and student organizations that have taken a leadership role on campus.

The two Recognition of Distinguished Achievement award certificates will honor an individual and an organization for their contributions to the campus community. Nomination forms are available from the Center for Leadership Development in University Center 209E. They are due Monday, April 9.

To qualify for the Recognition of Distinguished Achievement award, an individual must be a full-time student who has made significant contributions to the University through classroom and extracurricular campus involvement, as well as through employment.

Nominated student organizations must be recognized by the Associated Students of The University of Montana. They should demonstrate exceptional motivation, innovation and involvement while carrying out their mission.

The Recognition of Distinguished Achievement awards are presented annually to recognize the hard work and dedication of individual students and student organizations, and to inspire others to become involved on campus.
